Rapallo, September 2014
Prot. n. 123/14

Subject: Charter of Duties of Parents in Sport

This letter presents a new paper published by our International Association dedicated to the relationship between sport and the parents. Aware of the cultural role and international sports promotion, the General Assembly of Panathlon International approved in May 2014, the document that we enclose for you.

Since September the undersigned, General Secretariat has launched a campaign of development of this "Charter", and it would like to present it in a positive and strong relationship of collaboration with your organization.

In order to improve the conveyance and the knowledge of this important, cultural and sports act of reflection, we would like to receive your official subscription in order to plan some media, cultural and social initiatives of collaborative joint practice.

We remain at your disposal for information.

Best Regards

Leo Bozzo
The Secretary-General
