

APPENDIX 6a

System of WFC 2010

It was previously decided that 7 best teams from A division and winner of the B division from WFC 2008 were directly qualified for WFC 2010. Other teams will play the continental qualification in February 2010.

Since there will be no A and B division played any more in 2010, IFF CB has to decide how many teams will directly qualify from WFC2010 for WFC2012. Also the organizer of WFC 2010 waits for the decision, since this can affect the planning of the WFC and building of playing schedule.

RACC proposal is to decide that best 5 teams from WFC2010 will be directly qualified for WFC2012. Such decision would have the best impact on the importance of the most matches since the teams which loose the quarterfinals will have something important to fight for.
